

Sev-Rend FORM, FILL, & SEAL PACKAGING

Whether your product is a liquid, solid, powder or paste, flexible packaging is a great option to present your product in the marketplace. Flexible packaging is now the predominate method for confectionary, soups and sauces, snacks, ready to eat items, seafood, meats and poultry; just to name a few. The beverage industry has adopted flexible packaging into drink pouches, bottle wraps and even spirits. Sev-Rend is prepared to support your material and printing needs for many variations of flexible packaging.
